Transmitting Pamphlet entitled "ORGANIZATION LESSONS", published by the Central Committee of [REDACTED] 25X1A6a

25X1X7 1. We are enclosing herewith, in a single mimeographed copy as supplied [REDACTED] a primer published in September 1950 for the education of members of the Communist Party of [REDACTED] 25X1A6a

2. A careful perusal of this document, particularly sections marked by red pencil, will prove of value, we believe, to several divisions of HQ.

3. There is an evident preoccupation, on the part of the party, with the subject of security as it applies to penetration efforts by the 'enemy'.
You will find, on page 34, section C, that the Party has been obliging enough to indicate the characteristics of party members susceptible to subversion. They go on, then, to cite well known examples of penetration of communist parties.

4. Your experts on communism may be able to form opinions of some value as to the maturity of the [REDACTED] CP and its adherence to established Communist organizational doctrine. 25X1A6a

5. [REDACTED] as well, may find this pamphlet of some instructional value.

6. Since we do not have the facilities for reproducing this document, it would be appreciated if you would return a copy for [REDACTED]
